Grant relief to the ones who suffer pain and physical torment. Give peace to those whose minds are tortured by mental illness and anxiety. Comfort those who are alone in their suffering; may Your people reach out to them and to all the needy this day. HUMOUR OF THE WEEK

Yesterday, I was cooking dinner, and my son came up to me and said, “One day I will work and help you with the bills, the groceries, and the house expenses.” My eyes started to tear up. My baby will be 32 next month.

Practical Advice: If all the washrooms in your house are occupied and you are waiting for one to be free, switch off the wi-fi.

Three men died and are at the Pearly Gates of heaven. St. Peter tells them that they can enter the gates if they can answer one simple question: “What is Easter?”

The first man replies, “Oh, that’s easy, it’s the holiday in October when everybody gets together, eats turkey, and is thankful...”

“Wrong!” says St. Peter sternly, and he turns to ask the second man the same question.

He replies, “No, Easter is the holiday in December when we put up a nice tree, exchange presents and celebrate the birth of Jesus.

St. Peter shakes his head in disgust, looks at the third man and asks, “What is Easter?”

The third man smiles and looks St. Peter in the eye. “Of course I know what Easter is,” he says. Easter is the Christian holiday that coincides with the Jewish celebration of Passover. Jesus and His disciples were eating at the Last Supper and He was later deceived and turned over to the Romans by one of His disciples. The Romans made Him wear a crown of thorns and He was hung on a cross and died. He was buried in a cave that was sealed off by a large boulder. Every year the boulder is moved aside so that Jesus can come out. And if He sees His shadow, there will be six more weeks of winter.”

A Hard Boiled Egg or a Soft Potato

Speaking of the lessons she learned from a tragedy in life one mother said, “While my husband Frank and I were living in Pakistan many years ago, our six-month-old baby died. An old Punjabi who heard of our grief came to comfort us, ‘A tragedy like this is similar to being plunged into boiling water,’ he said. ‘If you were an egg, your affliction will make you hard boiled and unresponsive.

If you are a potato, you will emerge soft and pliable, resilient and adaptable.' It may sound funny to God," said his mother, "but there have been many times when I have prayed, 'O Lord, let me be not a hard-boiled egg but a potato'."

Remember that when you do the duty of the moment, you do something for Christ. You make a home for Him, in the place where your family dwells. You feed Him when you feed your family. You wash His clothes when you do their laundry. You help Him in a hundred ways as a parent. Then, when the time comes for you to appear before Christ to be judged, He will say to you, "I was hungry and you gave Me to eat. I was thirsty and you gave Me to drink. I was sick and you looked after Me."
