APPEAL FOR HELP: SUPPORT FOR NADIIA HAVRYLENKO AND FAMILY

Dear Friends, Parishioners, and Supporters,

We are reaching out to you with a heartfelt request for help for Nadiia Havrylenko, a young mother in her thirties, and her family.

Nadiia and her husband Vasyl arrived in Kirkland Lake from Ukraine in 2022 with their four children, seeking safety and a new beginning. In 2023, their family was blessed with the birth of their fifth child, Demian. Since their arrival, they have become a beloved part of the St. Vladimir Ukrainian Catholic Church community. Nadiia shares her beautiful voice in the church choir, and her children faithfully serve as altar servers.

For the past few years, the Havrylenko family has built their life in Kirkland Lake—Vasyl works locally, and the children attend school. They have been warmly received by our parish and town, and in turn, they have enriched our community with their faith, kindness, and dedication.

However, two weeks ago, Nadiia received the devastating diagnosis of a brain tumor. She is now undergoing further medical testing and has been referred to Sunnybrook Hospital in Toronto for consultations on October 31, 2025 and then she will find out about the surgery.

This sudden and serious situation has placed a heavy emotional and financial burden on the family. Nadiia will require travel to and from Toronto, accommodation during her pre- and post-operative care, and assistance with other related expenses that are beyond the family's means.

We appeal to you for your prayers, generosity, and financial support to help the Havrylenko family through this difficult time. Every contribution—no matter the amount—will help ease their financial strain and allow them to focus on Nadiia's recovery.

Donations can be made to St. Mary's Ukrainian Catholic Church by e-transfer stmaryssudbury@yahoo.ca or cheque 40 Notre Dame Ave. Sudbury, ON, P3C 5K2, indicating "For Nadiia Havrylenko Fund" in the message or memo line.

Together, let us show the Havrylenko family that they are not alone, and that our community stands beside them in faith, love, and hope.

With gratitude and prayer,

Fr. Petro (Peter) Bodnar

And the prayer of the faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise him up. ~ James 5:15

The Boy

A young boy lay in the critical care ward of Children's Hospital in Denver. He was thin and weak from years of struggling with uncontrolled asthma and chronic bronchitis. Even though he had been wasting away for years, he had never quit fighting for every breath. Now a severe case of pneumonia was taking away what little strength he had left. He lay in his oxygen tent listening to the muffled voices of those who came to visit him. He'd joke with his parents and tell them the worst part of being in the plastic enclosure was that it made the toast soggy, but he could see even through the foggy plastic that it was taking its toll on them too. As he got sicker, he joked less, sat up less, and heard less of what was going on around him.

One morning, as his parents sat by his bedside, the boy's doctor came in and whispered something to them. What the young boy couldn't hear was that the hospital staff had done everything they could, but the pneumonia was winning. The doctor suggested they call a priest. Soon a man in clerical dress was standing next to the boy's bed. He pulled up the side flap of the tent and, praying, he anointed the child with oil.

The rest of the day passed in a flurry of activity that seemed to happen in silence. Things in the hospital changed. The staff rotated and new patients came, while the well patients were released. The one constant seemed to be the boy in the tent, and his mother sitting by his side waiting.

His mother was a woman of faith. As she waited for the inevitable, she prayed silently, so she didn't disturb her son. She prayed late into the night until she had said to God all she could say. And then, she waited some more, with only the sound of the machinery to keep her company.

The boy was waiting too. He waited to catch his breath. He waited for the struggle to the end. He waited in silence. He was waiting and listening to the silence when he heard her voice. She said, "Don't worry. Everything's going to be alright."

He opened his eyes. The flap of the oxygen tent was still down. Funny, she had sounded so clear, like she was right next to his ear. He turned toward his mother and said, "Mom, you sounded just like an angel when you said that."

His mother looked up. "Said what?"

I think of this story whenever I feel alone. In today's world, sometimes it feels like the more people we have around us, the more electronic gadgets we have to help us communicate with each other, the more isolated we feel.

As Catholics we've got to remember that the grace from our Father fills us, that the intercession from the saints and our Holy Mother is only a prayer away, and that we are under constant watch of the angels. I know that for a fact because I was that little boy.

The Poppy

I am not a badge of honour, I am not a racist smear, I am not a fashion statement, to be worn once a year.
I am not glorification, of conflict or of war, I am not a paper ornament, a token, I am more.

I am a loving memory, of a father or a son, a permanent reminder of each and every one.

I'm paper or enamel, I'm old or shining new, I'm a way of saying thank you, to every one of you.

I am simple poppy, a reminder to you all, that courage, faith and honour, will stand where heroes fall.
