If you are away, please find a Catholic Church and attend the Divine Liturgy (or Holy Mass) on Sunday.

Lord, Jesus Christ, You Who travelled throughout Galilee healing the sick, enabling the blind to see and the lame to walk, bring healing to Your people who need it this day. Grant relief to the ones who suffer pain and physical torment. Give peace to those whose minds are tortured by mental illness and anxiety. Comfort those who are alone in their suffering; may Your people reach out to them and to all the needy this day. Send Your grace to the caregivers that they may be gentle and effective agents of Your loving mercy. May our sufferings be joined with Yours to bring healing throughout the world. Amen

A couple had two very mischievous little boys, ages eight and ten, who were always getting trouble. The parents knew that if any mischief occurred in their town their sons were probably involved.

The boys' mother heard the monsignor in town had been successful in disciplining children, so she asked if he would speak with her boys. The monsignor agreed. The mother sent the eight-year-old in first.

The monsignor, a huge man with a booming voice, sat the youngster down and asked him sternly, "Where is God?"

The boy's mouth dropped open, but he made no response. He just sat there with his mouth hanging open, wide-eyed. So, the monsignor repeated the question in an even stronger tone, "Where is God?" Again, the boy made no attempt to answer.

So, the monsignor raised his voice even more and shook his finger in the boy's face and bellowed, "WHERE IS GOD?"

The boy screamed and bolted from the room, ran directly home and dove into the closet, slamming the door behind him.

When his older brother found him, he asked, "What happened?"

The younger brother, gasping for breath replied, "We are in BIG trouble this time, dude. God is missing-and they think WE did it!!

Hope everyone has a very blessed and wonderful week!!!
