We are each of us angels with only one wing...

And we can fly embracing each other...

ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. We welcome our visitors joining us today. Please join us after Liturgy for fellowship and faith formation. Today's topic: A Walk Through the Divine Liturgy, Part 1.
2. BLESSING OF HONEY today after Liturgy.
3. DORMITION FAST: Began yesterday (August 1) and continues until the feast of the Dormition on August 15. This is a time of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving—a 'little Lent'. In addition to abstaining from meat and meat products on Friday, we fast from these on Wednesdays during this time.
4. HOLY DAY THIS WEEK: Transfiguration of Our Lord on Thursday. This is one of the twelve great feasts of the year and a holy day of obligation. The Church expects that we treat this feast like a Sunday—attend the Liturgy if at all possible, spend extra time in prayer, avoid unnecessary work.
5. With the summer months comes camps, beaches, travel, and vacations. Remember: Our union with God remains the single most important part of our lives, even during the summer. The Sunday Liturgy ought to be the thing that the rest of our schedule revolves around—it's not something to 'fit in' if you 'are able' or 'feel like it'. If you are away, please find a Catholic Church and attend the Divine Liturgy (or Holy Mass) on Sunday.
6. It's time again for the Salvation Army Backpack Program. If you wish to make a monetary donation through the church, Karen will do the shopping for you.

Lord, Jesus Christ, You Who travelled throughout Galilee healing the sick, enabling the blind to see and the lame to walk, bring healing to Your people who need it this day. Grant relief to the ones who suffer pain and physical torment. Give peace to those whose minds are tortured by mental illness and anxiety. Comfort those who are alone in their suffering; may Your people reach out to them and to all the needy this day. Send Your grace to the caregivers that they may be gentle and effective agents of Your loving mercy. May our sufferings be joined with Yours to bring healing throughout the world. Amen

For a Little Humour From: The Book of Catholic Jokes – Deacon Tom Sheridan

After 60-plus years of marriage, an 85-year-old couple had now stood at the Pearly Gates. They had been in good health the last ten years mainly due to her interest in health foods and exercise.

They were met by St. Peter who took them to their mansion that was decked out with a beautiful kitchen and master bath suite and Jacuzzi.

As they oohed and aahed, the old man asked St. Peter how much all this was going to cost.

"It's free," St. Peter replied, "this is heaven."

Next, they went out back to survey the championship golf course that the home backed up to. They would have golfing privileges every day.

The old man asked, "What are the green fees?"

St. Peter's reply, "This is heaven, you play for free."

Next, they went to the clubhouse and saw the lavish buffet lunch with the cuisine of the world laid out.

"How much does it cost to eat here?" asked the old man.

"Don't you understand yet? This is heaven; it is free!" St. Peter replied.

"Well, where are the low-fat and low-cholesterol tables?" the old man asked timidly.

St. Peter lectured, "That's the best part. You can eat as much as you like and you never get fat and you never get sick. This is heaven."

With that the old man went into a fit of anger, shrieking wildly. His wife tried to calm him down, but the old man looked at her and yelled, "If it weren't for you making me eat all those blasted bran muffins, I could have been here ten years ago!"
