ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. We welcome our visitors joining us today. Please join us after Liturgy for fellowship and faith formation. Today's topic: A Walk Through the Divine Liturgy, Part 2.
2. DORMITION FAST: Began yesterday (August 1) and continues until the feast of the Dormition on August 15. This is a time of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving—a 'little Lent'. In addition to abstaining from meat and meat products on Friday, we fast from these on Wednesdays during this time.
3. HOLY DAY THIS WEEK: Dormition of the Mother of God on Saturday. This is one of the twelve great feasts of the year and a holy day of obligation. The Church expects that we treat this feast like a Sunday—attend the Liturgy on Saturday morning, spend extra time in prayer, avoid unnecessary work.
4. Eparchial News: Our Eparchy's Chancellor and Judicial Vicar, Fr. Alexander Laschuk, was elevated to the rank of Mitred Archbishop this past Thursday in Toronto. Axios! He is worthy!
5. With the summer months comes camps, beaches, travel, and vacations. Remember: Our union with God remains the single most important part of our lives, even during the summer. The Sunday Liturgy ought to be the thing that the rest of our schedule revolves around—it's not something to 'fit in' if you 'are able' or 'feel like it'. If you are away, please find a Catholic Church and attend the Divine Liturgy (or Holy Mass) on Sunday.

Lord, Jesus Christ, You Who travelled throughout Galilee healing the sick, enabling the blind to see and the lame to walk, bring healing to Your people who need it this day. Grant relief to the ones who suffer pain and physical torment. Give peace to those whose minds are tortured by mental illness and anxiety. Comfort those who are alone in their suffering; may Your people reach out to them and to all the needy this day. Send Your grace to the caregivers that they may be gentle and effective agents of Your loving mercy. May our sufferings be joined with Yours to bring healing throughout the world. Amen

Humanity is not lost; it is buried beneath fear, greed, and noise. But every time you choose compassion over indifference, empathy over apathy, you bring us one step closer to remembering who we are. The world does not need more wealth or weapons – it needs people willing to be brave enough to care.
