ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. We welcome our guests joining us today! The Liturgy on Saturday is in English. The Liturgy on Sunday is bilingual and primarily in English—next week primarily in Ukrainian. Please stay after the 10am Liturgy for coffee and fellowship and faith formation. Today's topic: Introduction to the Sacraments.
2. Thank you! To everyone who volunteered at the brunch last weekend! Our next brunch is October 18.
3. Faith formation starts up again this Sunday. Over the next several months, we'll discuss and learn about the sacraments of the Church—a refresher for some, an introduction for others, something to learn for all! Today we begin this series with an Introduction to the Sacraments.
4. Next Sunday: Fellowship potluck after Liturgy. No special occasion—but an opportunity to continue the fellowship of the Liturgy. In the early Church, the Sunday Eucharist was always connected to a communal meal—our sacramental communion cannot be separated from our human communion; in one sense, they are the same thing.
5. LIFECHAIN: Next Sunday, October 4 from 2-3pm at the corner of Great Northern Rd and Wawanosh Ave. This is a yearly peaceful demonstration held across North America in defense of the unborn, who have zero legal status or protection up to the moment of birth in our country.

Lord, Jesus Christ, You Who travelled throughout Galilee healing the sick, enabling the blind to see and the lame to walk, bring healing to Your people who need it this day. Grant relief to the ones who suffer pain and physical torment. Give peace to those whose minds are tortured by mental illness and anxiety. Comfort those who are alone in their suffering; may Your people reach out to them and to all the needy this day. Send Your grace to the caregivers that they may be gentle and effective agents of Your loving mercy. May our sufferings be joined with Yours to bring healing throughout the world. Amen

A Relay Race From: Daily Vitamins for Spiritual Growth – Day by Day with Jesus -Vol. 2

We are all entrusted for a brief time with something precious – the Lord Jesus Christ “in whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge” and, as the Gospel says, “whom to know is life eternal.” This is the lighted torch we are to pass on to our children and to our friends who do not know Christ.

Someone tells of watching the 1948 Olympic Games in London. A relay race was on. The French team had started out well. But as the torch was being passed to the third runner, he dropped it. The accident put the team out of the running. The runner threw himself on the ground, flung his hands to his head in a gesture of despair and openly wept. His emotional outburst continued as he was led from the area.

To take defeat so tearfully might seem a bit unsportsmanlike. But one should remember how many persons were involved in that runner’s failure. There were his watching compatriots, whose hopes were dashed. There were his watching compatriots, whose hopes were dashed. There were the teammates who ran before him and whose work was ruined by his blunder. And then there were the runners who were to come after, but who never got the chance to run because of the accident.

The whole spectacle makes us realize how much life is like a relay race. In the race of life, no one starts from scratch. Other have run the race before us. Still others wait to run the race after us. If we fail to pass on the lighted torch they have given us, we fail not only them, but we also deprive countless others in the future of the light of Christ.

--NO ~ Excuse ~ Sunday--

To make it possible for everyone to attend Church on Sunday, we are going to have a special “No Excuse Sunday”.

Cots will be placed in the foyer for those who say “Sunday is my only day to sleep in.”

We have steel helmets for those who say, “The roof would cave in if I ever came to church.”

Blankets will be furnished for those who think the church is too cold, and fans for those who say it is too hot.”

We have hearing aids for those who say, “The Pastor speaks softly,” and cotton balls for those who say, “He speaks too loudly.”

Some relatives will be in attendance for those who like to go visiting on Sundays.

There will be TV dinners for those who can’t go to church and cook dinner also.

One section will be devoted to trees and grass for those who like to worship God in nature.

Finally, the sanctuary will be decorated with Christmas poinsettias and Easter lilies for those, who have never seen the church without them.

So, Dear, There is No Excuse Sunday!!
